Regarding: Ricardo Mulhia

August 22, 2015

Dear Sir or Madam:

My name is Matthew McDuffie and I have been a professional screenwriter for over twenty years. I have worked for HBO, Showtime, Fox and Warner Bros. I am also a Professor of Practice at The University of New Mexico. I have taught all levels of film writing and filmmaking for fifteen years.

Regarding Ricardo: what a spectacular human being. I'm not exaggerating. He is kind and curious, and as persistent as they come, and I believe he has a terrific talent as a filmmaker; he is an empathetic storyteller, he has a lovely eye, and he is energetically selfless. I also believe Ricardo to have the passion and stamina to succeed in this business. Above all, I think this young man has something to say – something to contribute as an artist. It is my honor to recommend him, and you will be blessed if you take him into your program.

Very sincerely yours,

Matthew McDuffie
